TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT POLICY SS-WHS-POL-000

Access and Participation:

Ensuring equitable access to training opportunities is paramount. Therefore, all employees are provided with equal access to training based on their job requirements and individual development plans. Supervisors are tasked with actively encouraging and supporting employee participation in training programs, ensuring that employees are equipped with the necessary resources and time to engage in developmental activities without compromising their work responsibilities.

Training Delivery:

The company employs a flexible approach to training delivery, utilizing various methods to accommodate different learning preferences and requirements. Whether through traditional classroom-based sessions, interactive workshops, virtual learning platforms, or hands-on practical experiences, the aim is to deliver training in the most effective and engaging manner possible, maximizing learning outcomes for employees.

Evaluation and Feedback:

Continuous evaluation of training programs is integral to ensuring their effectiveness and relevance. Feedback mechanisms such as surveys, assessments, and performance reviews are utilized to gather insights from employees regarding their training experiences. This feedback is then used to inform ongoing improvements in training content, delivery methods, and overall program effectiveness.

Compliance:

Compliance with training requirements is mandatory for all employees, reflecting the company's unwavering commitment to employee development and organizational success. Failure to complete required training may result in disciplinary action in accordance with company policies and procedures, underscoring the importance of adherence to training obligations.

Review and Updates

This policy will be reviewed regularly to ensure compliance with relevant legislation and best practices. Updates may be made as necessary to reflect changes in the law or organizational requirements.
